A PLEASANT EVENING

Spent by the Young Men's Society of Broad-Street Wethodist Church.

The anniversary exercises of the Young Men's Society of Broad-Street Methodist church were held on Friday evening. The lecture room was tastefully decorated with hothouse plants and parlor lamps. No pains were spared to make this, the anniversary of the society, a complete success.
The following programme was executed:

Hymn-"Work, for the Night is Com-or," prayer-liev W. V. Tudor; solo-Mr. E. H. Clowes; selection-"Mando-lin Band March"-Arion Club; "Welcome" -J. R. Magee, selection-Myrtle Waltz"-Arion Club; address-Rev. L. N. Latham; solo-Mrs. Jasper Rowe; remarks-Rev. W. V. Tudor; selection-"Washington Post

larch"-Arion Club.
At the close of the official programme the audience was invited to partake of a delicious repast prepared by the supper committee. Every one present enjoyed the evening's entertainment, and an un-animous vote of thanks was tendered to those taking part, especially to Rev. J. N. Latham, for his excellent address and Latham, for his excellent address and words of advice; to Mrs. Jasper Rowe and Mr. E. H. SILK ACTIVITY. The Slik Department presents a busy scene. The Black Satin Duchess and the Black Armures and Rhademenes we advertised last week at 75c. to $2.50 a yard proved great favorites with the ladies, as the values were very unusual. The Colored Satin Finish Crystal Silks at $1.0 a yard have never been equalled under $1.50 a yard, and are selling fast.

There's plenty to last this week out of all. If you want a Slik Dress now is the time to buy.

A GREAT SALE OF Chenille Curtains. The rush of the past month has left us with a lot of single pairs (one pair
